Reaching Alaska Each Village Every Person

Summer Missions Projects

As we gear up for the summer, we're currently in the process of organizing and preparing for several important projects.

Our primary focus will be on renovating the church buildings in Bethel, Emmonak, Togiak, and Kake. Additionally, we're excited to announce the construction of a new girls' dorm at Camp Agaiutim Nune.

We deeply appreciate the dedication shown by our volunteers, who selflessly offer their time and resources. It's through their commitment that we're able to complete these projects.

None of this would be possible without your faithful sacrificial giving and unwavering commitment to Missions in Alaska. Your contributions make a difference.

Thank you for your generosity and willingness to support missions in Alaska.

Village Crusade

At times, unforeseen circumstances necessitate changes to our plans. Regrettably, we've had to reschedule the village crusade in Chevak.

We ask for your prayers as we navigate this adjustment and continue to plan ministry efforts in Chevak and other targeted villages. Your support in prayer is invaluable as we seek to adapt and serve these communities.

Utqiagvik Update

I had the honor of hosting a Pastor installation service for John and Janet Turnure in Utqiagvik (Barrow) this past January.

During the service on Sunday night, I was privileged to share my testimony of healing from cancer.

Following that, we set aside a dedicated time for prayer, specifically for those needing a healing touch from God.

One individual shared a remarkable testimony afterward. They expressed that after receiving prayer, they experienced the fire of God and were overwhelmed by the joy of the Lord.

Glory to God, within just a few minutes, they found themselves completely healed!

Reaching Alaska
Each Village Every Person

Why Missions?

Missions in Alaska embody the essence of Christianity by spreading love, hope, and salvation to every individual in each village.

Missions transcend cultural and geographical boundaries, reflecting the core principles of compassion, service, and evangelism.

Recognizing the vital importance of missions work, we are committed to fulfilling the Great Commission and profoundly impacting lives and communities in Alaska.

First and foremost, missions fulfill the commandment from Jesus Himself in the Great Commission, as recorded in the Gospel of Matthew (28:19-20).

As followers of Christ, it is our duty and privilege to share the Good News with others, making disciples of all nations.

Through missions, we actively participate in God's redemptive plan for humanity, extending His love and grace.

Moreover, missions serve as a tangible manifestation of God's love and compassion, providing a beacon of hope and healing in a world marked by division, injustice, and suffering.

We exemplify God's unwavering love and solidarity by extending support to the marginalized, oppressed, and overlooked.

Additionally, missions expand God's kingdom and cultivate vibrant Christian communities through evangelism, discipleship, and church planting.

By empowering believers to live out their faith, missions transform lives and communities through the Gospel's power.

Furthermore, missions embody the essence of Christian stewardship and obedience to God's call. We align our lives with His purposes and priorities by utilizing our resources, talents, and time to further God's kingdom.

Through missions, we step out in faith, trusting God to work miracles and impact lives beyond what we can imagine as we partner with Him in His mission of redemption and reconciliation.

MISSIONS

Missions are not just a duty but a sacred calling and privilege for believers. By embracing this call, we actively participate in God's redemptive work, spreading His love, grace, and truth.

With passion and purpose, we witness transformed lives, restored communities, and the expansion of God's kingdom, fulfilling His divine purposes and bringing glory to His name.

Lower 48 Missions Services

I recently returned from a 3-week trip visiting pastors and supporting churches and individuals in Kansas and Missouri.

After driving the rental car 2,600 miles, drinking copious amounts of coffee, meeting with pastors and leaders, and preaching seven times, I'm home now.

While I'm happy to be back home in Alaska, I'm also grateful for the invaluable opportunity to strengthen connections with these missions partners.

Team Members Needed

As our influence and opportunities continue to expand, we are in need of additional funding.
