Camp Agaiutim Nune

We recently returned from a trip to Emmonak and Camp Agaiutim Nune, where we had the opportunity to support the local church by filling in for the pastors while they visited family.

During our time there, we also repaired a four-wheeler and transported supplies we had shipped out on the fall barge from Emmonak to the camp.

It was a blessing to spend time in Emmonak, reconnecting with familiar faces and speaking at the church.

If you would like to get involved with the dorm construction projects at Camp AN, please reach out we'd love to have you partner with us!

US Missions Field Rep Update

The last week of August, I had the honor of accompanying Pastor JR Rodriguez, our Intercultural Director, on a strategic trip across Alaska. We traveled to Fairbanks.

Then to Fort Yukon,

Bethel,

Akiak,

and Emmonak.

This trip allowed us to highlight our Alaska missionaries' needs, challenges, and opportunities.

Reaching Alaska Each Village Every Person

US Missions Field Rep Update (Cont)

Our time together was not only productive but also sparked meaningful conversations about how we can better support the incredible work our current US Missionaries are doing.

Though it was a fast-paced and busy schedule, it was vital to give our leadership firsthand exposure to the unique challenges and needs here in Alaska.

We're excited about the possibilities this trip has sparked and are looking forward to exciting developments ahead.

A Season of Transition

(Edited from original newsletter send out in October)

Due to recent circumstances, some of the information in the printed newsletter we mailed out last month needs to be updated.

My transition out of the Director position with Alaska Missions is currently on hold, and I will continue in this role for the time being.

I am grateful to serve the network in this capacity and am committed to following God's plan for us as we move forward.

As developments occur, I will keep you informed.
