Reaching Alaska Each Village Every Person

Exciting Updates from the Mission Field

We are excited to share some incredible highlights from our recent ministry efforts. God has been moving powerfully in the villages of Alaska, and we are honored to be a part of His work.

Kake

Recently, I had the privilege of traveling to the village of Kake in Southeast Alaska with Kevin Aleshire. Our mission was to assist with essential repairs on the church parsonage and to ensure the facility was in good condition for ministry.

It was a fast-paced trip filled with long hours, meaningful fellowship, and significant progress.

One of the most urgent issues we addressed was a malfunctioning furnace in the church building.

this issue

The furnace had been leaking water onto the floor, creating a mess and a potential hazard for those using the space.

Kevin and I got to work, diagnosing the problem and making the necessary repairs. By God's grace, we were able to restore the furnace to proper operation.

Another major project we tackled was repairing the back wall of the parsonage, which had suffered extensive rot. Parts of the wall were so deteriorated that they needed to be completely removed and rebuilt.

This was no small job, but we tore out the damaged sections and installed new boards and siding.

By the time we finished, the wall was solid, weatherproof, and ready to stand strong against the elements.

Signs, Wonders, and Transformed Lives Along the Yukon River

Our recent ministry trip along the Yukon River was truly a time of divine encounters. We witnessed undeniable evidence of God's power at work from village to village.

Each Village Every Person

Emmonak

We began in Emmonak, where our first night of services set the tone for an incredible journey. The presence of the Lord was tangible, and miracles unfolded before our eyes.

One elder, who had struggled for years with hearing loss in her right ear, suddenly found herself hearing clearly again!

With a radiant smile, she joyfully declared, "I can hear just fine now!"

Another individual, suffering from a wrist injury, experienced God's healing touch and was able to move their wrist freely—without pain. For 30 minutes, they kept moving it, amazed, declaring, "It doesn't hurt at all!"

What a testimony to God's healing power!

From Emmonak, we journeyed down the frozen Yukon River to the village of Alakanuk. The folks met us with a warm greeting and rich fellowship.

Secure Giving

Thanks for praying and giving!

Alakanuk

The community welcomed us with a generous spread of traditional foods, a reflection of their hospitality and a deep sense of community. But even more significant was their hunger for the presence of God.

Faith-filled the atmosphere as we gathered for worship, and we experienced a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

It was evident that God was at work in Alakanuk, drawing people to Himself and transforming lives. The seeds of revival are being sown, and we believe a great harvest is coming!

Nunam Iqua

Our final stop took us even further down the river, to Nunam Iqua—the last village on the Yukon.

Traveling by snow machine, we arrived just in time for a powerful Sunday evening service in the tribal hall, where God's Spirit moved in a remarkable way.

Throughout the trip, we witnessed signs, wonders, and miracles—but most importantly, 13 people committed their lives to Jesus!

It was a blessing to join Pastor Jimmy Okitkun, Ian McKane, and Milt Michener on this ministry trip.

I'm looking forward to future ministry trips with these powerful leaders.
